Dublin Castle, February 5, 1789.

THIS Day the Parliament having met according to Prorogation, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Scrope Bernard, Esq; Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Excellency to the House of Commons, signifying his Pleasure that they should immediately attend his Excellency in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Excellency made the following Speech.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WITH the deepest Concern I find myself obliged, on opening the present Session of Parliament, to communicate to you the painful Information that His Majesty has been for some Time afflicted by a severe Malady, in consequence of which He has not honoured me with His Commands upon the Measures to be recommended to His Parliament.

I have directed such Documents as I have received respecting His Majesty's Health to be laid before you; and I shall also communicate to you, so soon as I shall be enabled, such further Information as may assist your Deliberations on that melancholy Subject.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Deeming it at all Times my indispensible Duty to call your Attention to the Security of the Public Credit, and to the Maintenance of the Civil and Military Establishments, I have ordered the Public Accounts to be laid before you.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is unnecessary for me to express to you my earnest Wishes for the Welfare and Prosperity of Ireland, which, in every Situation, I shall always be anxious to promote; nor need I declare my Confidence in that affectionate Attachment to His Majesty, and in that zealous Concern for the united Interests of both Kingdoms, which have manifested themselves in all your Proceedings.

We learn from your Excellency, with the moſt deep and unfeigned Sorrow, that our beloved Sovereign has been for ſome Time afflicted by a ſevere Malady, which has prevented your receiving His Royal Commands upon the Affairs of this Kingdom. Under this ſore Calamity, we cannot but remember, with the warmeſt Gratitude, that His Majeſty's Paternal Care has ever been directed to the Happineſs and Proſperity of His Subjects: And our Hearts, thus deeply impreſſed, offer up the moſt fervent Prayers to the Divine Providence, that our Gracious Monarch may ſoon be reſtored to the anxious Wiſhes of His People.
